A note for grown-ups

This gentle story practices stopping and waiting when small animals cross a path. Children should watch wildlife from a safe distance with a trusted grown-up and never chase or touch it.

Read slowly. Pause for pointing, counting, sounds, and wiggles. It is always okay for a little listener to turn the page.

Someone on the path

Rumble, rumble went ROB's treads.

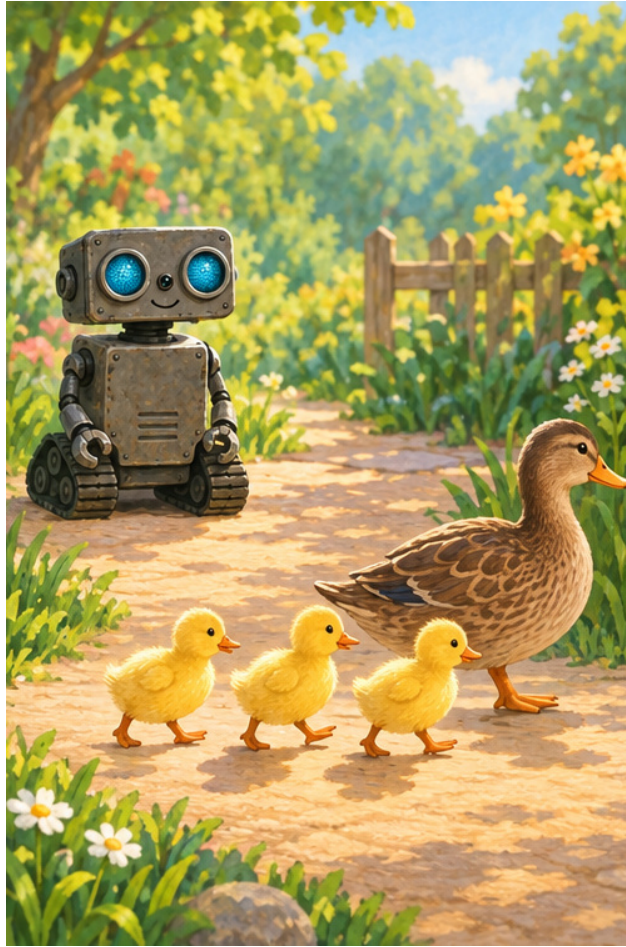

Then ROB saw a mother duck.

ROB stopped far away.

"I will wait," he said.

Can you make your feet very still?

Three little waddles

One duckling waddled out.

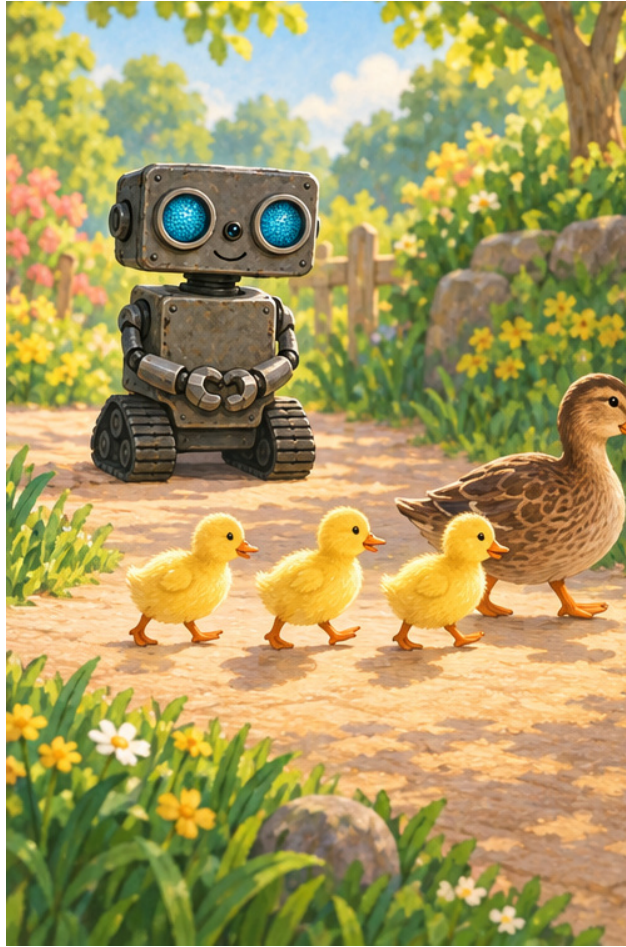

Then two.

Then three.

Waddle, waddle, waddle.

ROB stayed still.

Waiting is an action

ROB did not beep.

ROB did not roll.

ROB watched the whole little family pass.

Waiting felt slow.

Waiting kept the path safe.

All the way across

Splash! The ducks reached the pond.

One, two, three ducklings bobbed on the water.

Puppy sat beside ROB.

“Now we may go,” said ROB.

Rumble, rumble—slowly.

Practice waiting

Take one slow breath in.

Take one slow breath out.

Count one, two, three before you move.

ROB remembers

SEE · STOP · WAIT · CHECK · GO

Waiting can be a very kind thing to do.
