A note for grown-ups

This bright read-aloud names three first colors—red, yellow, and blue—then brings them together beneath a rainbow. Ask your child to find something nearby in each color.

Read slowly. Pause for pointing, counting, sounds, and wiggles. It is always okay for a little listener to turn the page.

Red glows warm

ROB found a lantern.

It glowed warm and bright.

“Red!” beeped ROB.

Red like a berry.

Red like a wagon.

Can you find something red?

Yellow shines

Outside, another lantern shone.

“Yellow!” beeped ROB.

Yellow like the sun.

Yellow like the flowers.

Can you find something yellow?

Blue cools the rain

After the rain, ROB found one more.

“Blue!” beeped ROB.

Blue like the puddle.

Blue like ROB's eyes.

Can you find something blue?

Together they glow

Red. Yellow. Blue.

The puppy gave a happy yip.

Above them, a rainbow curved through the sky.

So many colors. One beautiful day.

Color hunt

1. Point to the red lantern.
2. Point to the yellow lantern.
3. Point to the blue lantern.
4. What colors can you see in the rainbow?

ROB remembers

RED · YELLOW · BLUE

Every color has a glow of its own.
