A note for grown-ups

This cozy, non-scary Halloween story explores circles, triangles, and feelings about the dark. ROB decorates with removable felt and uses a battery light—there is no carving, sharp tool, or open flame.

Read slowly. Pause for pointing, counting, sounds, and wiggles. It is always okay for a little listener to turn the page.

Round and orange

ROB found something round.

Round like a ball.

Orange like a sunset.

“Hello, pumpkin!” beeped ROB.

Can you draw a round shape in the air?

A face from shapes

With a grown-up, ROB chose soft felt shapes.

Two circle eyes.

One triangle nose.

One curved smile.

No cutting. Just press, pat, smile.

Shadows arrive

The sky grew dark blue.

Leaves rustled. Shadows stretched.

ROB's smile turned small.

“Dark feels different,” he said.

ROB looked again. The pumpkin was still friendly.

A gentle glow

A grown-up switched on a little battery light.

Glow went the pumpkin.

Blink went ROB's eyes.

Swish went Puppy's tail.

“Happy Halloween,” whispered ROB.

Cozy—not scary.

Shape hunt

1. Find two circles.
2. Find one triangle.
3. Make a curved smile.
4. What helps you feel cozy in the dark?

ROB remembers

LOOK AGAIN · BREATHE · FIND THE FRIENDLY SHAPES

A gentle light can make the dark feel cozy.
