A note for grown-ups

This quiet counting story moves from one to five. Point to each glow and invite your child to count slowly. Fireflies belong outdoors, where little watchers can enjoy them without touching.

Read slowly. Pause for pointing, counting, sounds, and wiggles. It is always okay for a little listener to turn the page.

One little light

The garden turned blue and sleepy.

Then—blink!

ROB saw one little light.

“Hello, one firefly.”

Hold up one finger.

Two by the flowers

Blink. Blink.

Two fireflies danced by the flowers.

One, two.

ROB watched with quiet blue eyes.

Three by the gate

Near the gate, another glow joined in.

One, two, three!

Three tiny lights made a wiggly trail.

Can your finger wiggle through the air?

Four, then five

The puppy came to look.

Four lights floated high.

Then one more blinked awake.

One, two, three, four, five!

Five fireflies. Five warm glows.

“Goodnight, little lights,” whispered ROB.

Count together

1. Tap once.
2. Clap twice.
3. Blink three times.
4. Wiggle four fingers.
5. Hold up five fingers.

ROB remembers

ONE · TWO · THREE · FOUR · FIVE

Counting slowly helps every little light be seen.
