A note for grown-ups

This Christmas read-aloud practices sorting colors and working together. The story uses cool battery-powered lights with grown-up supervision—never candles or an open flame.

Read slowly. Pause for pointing, counting, sounds, and wiggles. It is always okay for a little listener to turn the page.

A little green tree

Snow sparkled outside.

ROB brought in a little green tree.

Not too tall. Not too wide.

Just right for the workshop.

“Hello, little tree,” beeped ROB.

Sort the colors

Puppy found the ornaments.

Red in this bowl.

Gold in that bowl.

Blue in the last bowl.

Sort, sort, sort!

Which color would you choose first?

Lights with a grown-up

A grown-up checked the cool battery lights.

ROB looped them gently.

Around once. Around twice.

Click!

The little lights began to glow.

A star together

One gold paper star waited for the top.

ROB reached. Puppy stretched.

Together—up it went!

Red, gold, blue, and green shone in the window.

“Merry Christmas, little tree.”

Christmas color hunt

1. Find something green.
2. Point to a red ornament.
3. Point to a blue ornament.
4. Where is the gold star?

ROB remembers

SORT · HELP · GLOW · SHARE

Working together makes the season bright.
